

We welcome you to join Jetsunma Tenzin Palmo on her first teaching visit to Scotland

Jetsunma Tenzin Palmo is a renowned Buddhist teacher, popular worldwide for her warm, clear and down-to-earth presentation of the Dharma and its application in daily life. The inspiring story of her life, including 12 years of secluded retreat in a Himalayan cave, is the subject of a well-known biography, 'Cave in the Snow'. In 2008 Tenzin Palmo was given the title of Jetsunma, which means Venerable Master, by His Holiness the Twelfth Gyalwang Drukpa, Head of her lineage, in honour of her achievements. Jetsunma is the founder and abbess of Dongyu Gatsal Ling Nunnery in Northern India.
