

Baraka:

The Sufi Way of Blessing

26 - 29 May 2016

Allanton Peace Sanctuary,
Scotland

Meditation, mantra, Dances of Universal Peace, Sufi zikr, walking meditation, and a range of practice from the diversity of world spiritual traditions on the subject of heart-magnetism, which the Sufis call baraka.

"Love itself is the great phenomenon, and it is needed more than ever today because of the huge, catastrophic, destructive forces unleashed upon earth. However, love without self-sacrifice is very limited in its scope; it may even be useless. Therefore, the God-realized person comes to establish centers for the transmissions of love and blessings, and these sacred centers may be called temples, whether there are buildings there or not."

- Murshid Samuel L. Lewis, "Introduction to Spiritual Brotherhood."

Starts with a dinner on Thursday, 26 May at 6pm, followed by an evening session.

Finishes on Sunday, 29 May at 3pm.

Cost £190 (incl. vegetarian meals, own accommodation)

£220 (incl. 3 nights camping)

£250 (incl. 3 nights in dormitory)

£275 (incl. 3 nights in shared room)

Pir Shabda Kahn (California, USA), a disciple of American Sufi Master Murshid Samuel Lewis, is the spiritual leader of the Sufi Ruhaniat International - a contemporary Sufi stream in the lineage of the Indian mystic Hazrat Inayat Khan. He is world renowned teacher of Dances of Universal Peace and North Indian Classical Vocal Music. His teachings of universal love and compassion are joyous and relaxed, yet profound and powerful.
