

Day Workshop on Maghrebi Cinema

MAGHREBI CINEMA

17 May, Film Guild, Filmhouse, Edinburgh

MIDDLE EAST FESTIVAL

In this day workshop, Dr Stefanie Van de Peer (University of Stirling) will provide an overview of trends and movements in the cinema of the Maghreb, focusing on women's contributions to filmmaking and film history. Richly illustrated with clips and images, this day of cinema history from a neglected area in the Arab world, showcases the most exciting and stand-out performances of directors, actors and festivals, to paint a picture of Maghrebi cinema that reflects the treasure trove hidden beneath the surface of politics and religion.

17 MAY, 9.30AM – 4.00PM, FILM GUILD
